About This Tour

Labuan Bajo is a fishing town located at the western end of the large island of Flores in the East Nusa Tenggara province of Indonesia. It is the capital of the West Manggarai Regency, one of regencies in Flores Island. The town is one of the gateways into the charm of Flores, you can reach by direct flight from Malaysia, Jakarta, Surabaya, Bali and you can do it by Ferry boat. Why should you come to Labuan Bajo because there are some good destinations to visit as Mirror cave stone, Puncak Waringin hill, Amelia Sea View, Ranko cave, several waterfall and Komodo National Park. Also, Mulas Island (Pulau Mules) is an island in the Savu Sea.

The island is administered as part of Manggarai Regency in East Nusa Tenggara Province of Indonesia. The economy of the island is dominated by farming and fishing, though in 2018 the government of Indonesia began to invest on the island as a tourist destination. It's a good choice for traveler to take this tour for relaxing and exploring the Nuca Mulas island.

About This Tour

The activities and what you will see at the Mules Island. It is still relatively quiet, making it an ideal place for those seeking tranquility and away from the hustle and bustle of the city.

The natural scenery in the form of green hills and beautiful coastlines makes it a perfect location for photography and enjoying stunning sunsets. Its beaches also offer a stretch of clean white sand and clear seawater. Here, you can find coral reefs rich in various marine biota, including tropical fish, coral, anemones, as well as turtles and dolphins that sometimes appear around the waters.
